RE: Polelle v. Byrd, No.22-14031-W

FRAP 28 (j) letter

Dear Mr. Smith:

Polelle's motion to further supplement the record, mailed on August 13, 2024 to the Court and all parties, cites the newly found case of Arcia v. Florida Sec'y of State, 772 F. 3d 1335 (11th Cir 2014). The case is so "pertinent and significant" under FRAP 28 (j) in relation to Polelle's Argument II (traditional standing) on p. 10 of Polelle's opening brief that it merits the Court's attention.

This Court held that individual plaintiffs misclassified as non-citizens had sufficient injury for standing even though ultimately allowed to vote in the Florida 2012 Florida Primary. The misclassification constituted past injury as well as a "realistic probability" of future injury due to the foreseeability of repeated misclassification. The political affiliation of the individual plaintiffs or lack thereof was not a factor in the Court's reasoning.

The undersigned has sent a copy of this letter to all other parties.

Sincerely,
